WHAT IS AFFECTING OIL PRICES THE WEEK OF SEP 5, 2022?

Source: Stratas Advisors

With the holiday weekend in the US, we are putting out a brief note this week about the oil markets.

As we pointed out last week, the price of Brent crude has been lingering around the 200-day moving average and facing several factors putting downward pressure on oil prices – and at the beginning of the week oil prices are still languishing.
